

March 9, 1976

friends, out in Grand Island we have a very famous family name, important to our community, important to the State of Nebraska. I'll introduce one member of that family at this time, the Honorable Joe Martin who served in the Legislature, 1953 through 1956, and if Ann is with him, let's have you both stand up.

PRESIDENT: Senator Clark.

SENATOR CLARK: Mr. President, members, I would like to introduce three people from my District but I can't do it. I only have one here. I had two former ones, Ernie Blome is in California now. Ray Babcock is in Arizona. But I do have one here, George Fleming. Now he served for $2400 a year and he tells me that he couldn't make enough money to get to either California or Arizona because of inflation. So I would like to introduce to you my good friend, Senator George Fleming from Sidney.

PRESIDENT: Senator Rasmussen.

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: Mr. President, it's my pleasure to introduce five distinguished gentlemen who have been friends, I guess, for a good many years and four from my District. Senator Rudy Kokes from 1965 to 1972. We have Senator Jack Romans who served from 1959 to 1962 and is now a member of the Public Service Commission. Senator LeRoy Bahensky who now resides in Lincoln, and K. W. Peterson from Sargent. I didn't see him out there. He's supposed to show up. He served from 1951 to 1957. It's also my pleasure to introduce a person that I like his name very much, Senator Eric Rasmussen, Public Service Commissioner from Fairmont, who served 1963 to 1967. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Goodrich.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Mr. President, members of the body, I would like to introduce the man who occupied this chair prior to me and he's been kibitzing with me back here, asking me if it's all right if my daughter goes with his son. Of course, my daughter is 23 and she's the teacher. His son is 9 and he's in class. So, I guess it's all right. Senator Bill Bloom, 1967 through 1970. Another man I would like to introduce under the balcony over here is the former Senator Dave Stahmer who served four years with us here. Dave.

PRESIDENT: Senator Richard Lewis.

SENATOR R. LEWIS: Mr. President, the Speaker has already introduced one of my predecessors, my immediate predecessor, here from this District. We have three still living in the District and very close personal friends of mine. The one who was previously introduced was Senator Lester Harsh. I haven't seen him. Is he here today? Oh, yes. Senator Horace Crandall from Curtis. I know he's here. And a former Speaker of this body, served from 1955 to 1965, he is here with